Entertainments.

HYPERION.

Peter F. Dalley will present "The Night Clerk" to-morrow evening. It is said to be irresistibly funny from beginning to end. The management have mounted "The Night Clerk" in a most elaborate manner, it being fully equipped with expensive scenery, novel and original devices, popular music, pretty girls and clever comedians. Sale of seats now open.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Crown street, between Church and Temple, was filled with the great crowds which attended the performance of "The Black Crook" last night. The new illuminated sign threw its rays on the immense crowds. The sidewalks were lined with the surging masses that were clamoring for admission to witness this great production at popular prices. Long before 8 o'clock the "standing room only" sign was displayed and hundreds were unable to gain admission. Treasurer Hendricks was kept busy till 9 o'clock before the line was broken. Of the performance nothing but praise can be given.

The skeleton of the old piece is all that remains of it, but it has been dressed gorgeously and in most attractive attire. What there is left of the old drama is capably presented by a dramatic company of unusual merit, which includes many New Haven favorites. Of course, the scenery, the costumes, the accessories, the marches, the armors, the ballets, the mechanical changes and the wonderful effects of light are the things which are of most importance in a production of this kind, and Tompkins has outdone all his previous attempts in spectacle.

The illuminated terrace of the Castle of Wolfenstein is a magnificent stage picture, dazzling with its 1,000 electric lights, arranged in bewildering combinations. The valley at the foot of the Hartz mountains is a beautiful illustration of what the scenic artists can do, and the Grotto of Stalacta, the incantation scene and the grand transformation scene have never been equalled on this great stage, where so many beautiful pictures have been shown.

The leading dancers are among the best that have been seen at this house in many years. The grand ballet of gems introduces Mlle. Kraska and Mlle. Mayeroff of the Alhambra, London. Both of them created a decidedly favorable impression. Besides the ballet there is a corps de ballet of fifty, all dressed in amazing and dazzling costumes. The specialties are particularly good, including the musical dolls, the great Ballet in 12 numerous change acts and the Rixford in their head balancing act.

The specialties introduced by Miss Marshall and Mr. Wade are deserving of special mention. Their singing and dancing are some of the best that have been seen in this city in years. The entire performance is elegant and the scenic effects are marvelous and worthy of special mention. "The Black Crook" will be repeated this and to-morrow evenings, and should be witnessed by a large audience. The new scenery which has just been painted by Blakelee & Thomas was used for the first time last night and reflects great credit on the painter.

"A Green Goods Man," Edward J. Abram's great farce, with its keen satire, catchy music, uproarious fun, beautiful women and clever comedians, will appear Thursday, September 5. This will be the only visit of this farce to this city this year, as it will appear shortly in rapid succession in Chicago five weeks, Boston four weeks and New York city for an indefinite period.

Morrison's company will be at the Grand Friday and Saturday evenings, with matinee on Saturday, in Bayle Bernard's version of Goethe's immortal "Faust," which with the excellent cast, new and elegant scenery, wonderful electric effects and calcium lights, will be given upon a scale of grandeur never before witnessed here.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATRE.

There were immense audiences at Wonderland yesterday. The theatre was packed. The Rossows tickled the immense audiences with their tiny stature and cute ways, and electrified all with the surpassing brilliancy of their performance. It was astonishing how easily they lifted heavy weights, carried each other at arms' length, and performed the other feats which Sandow first introduced into America. It was in their boxing match, however, they carried the crowd most. The showed themselves scientifically expert at handling the gloves, and when the smallest midget, wearing the stars and stripes about his waist, knocked out his heavier antagonist wearing the British colors, the applause was deafening. The tiny athletes made a marvellously successful debut.

The specialty artists who supported the Rossows made an extremely good impression also. George H. Wood, Miss Nellie Waters and the Nawns particularly pleased the large audience. The Crane brothers, Terry and Elmer, Miss May Edlison and Huber and Alayne also won hearty applause.

It is a splendid performance and will be undoubtedly witnessed by overflowing houses during the week.

Labor day passed very quietly here. All of the factories but Judd's and the rubber shop started up as usual yesterday, but as there was a vacancy at many of the benches before noon. The afternoon was a dead failure in the work line. Hall & Elton & Co., Wallace's and the other factories shut down at noon. There was no special attractions offered about town and many went to Meriden, New Haven and Hartford for amusement.

Freddie Violette of Washington street, while practicing with an old revolver down by the lake early last evening, blew off a small portion of one side of his hand by an accidental discharge of the revolver and can thank his star that the injury was no worse.

Disorderly House Raided.

Lizzie Carter, a hardened police rounder, was arrested yesterday afternoon by the officers of Station 2. Lizzie lives at the corner of Vine street and Sylvan avenue. She was carousing with a boon companion, Mary Hart, the "Stitcher." She and her guests were gathered in by the unfeeling police and both were charged with drunkenness.

A trial of the cases yesterday would have dispensed with any necessity for proof from witnesses of the arrest, as both were gloriously drunk. In addition to the charge of drunkenness Lizzie was accused of keeping a disorderly house.

As a 3-year-old Brown & Rogers sold him to Pierre Lorillard for $20,000. At the breaking up of the Ranocas stable he was bought by G. Walbaum for $20,000. In his turf career Lampighter has earned $30,015.
